

My story with Fiverr as a freelance content writer

I always wanted to be a writer and I have been writing creative stories since my childhood. While I was in my college, I wanted to have some money and decided to become a freelance writer. I chose Fiverr to sell my skills because of its simplicity. I joined Fiverr back in 2012 April and I have been working as a professional content writer for the past 3 years. Now I am an IT graduate, but I am not working for any company because Fiverr has become my main source of income. I am getting a decent income from Fiverr and that's more than enough for me to live and save.

Why did I choose Fiverr to sell my skills? Fiverr can be considered as one of the most popular freelancing platforms out there on the Internet. It is a simple website and everything is based on what you can sell for $5. I decided to write 500 word articles for $5 on Fiverr and sell them on Fiverr for the clients in need. Fiverr is the 46th most popular website in United States and as a result, I didn't have to face any difficulty when attracting new potential buyers to my gig.

Throughout my journey with Fiverr for the last 3 years, I have learnt some excellent tips about the website as well. My success on Fiverr was entirely because of the hard work. I always try to deliver something more than promised to all my clients. This helped me to increase repeat customers and I was able to create a strong customer base as well. In addition, I invested a lot of money to promote my gigs. I even created social media promotional campaigns in order to promote my gig and grab the attention of more and more sellers.

Freelancing can be considered as a numbers game. If you are a faint of heart, you are not recommended to become a freelancer, especially a writer on Fiverr. You need to produce, produce and produce in order to make money on Fiverr. It is not possible for fear, rejection, depression, anxiety and lack of confidence to keep you away from reaching the goals. All you need to do is to focus more on your writing assignments and keep writing according to the instructions submitted by clients. In addition, it is important to carry out a reliable marketing campaign because it can assist you to grab the attention of new potential buyers.

I have been working as a freelance content writer on Fiverr for almost 4 years now. I have invested a lot of time as well as money in my work and now I am enjoying the results I have got. I have one of the best rated article writing gigs on Fiverr and I am working for few hours a day in order to make a decent amount of money while enjoying the comfort of my home.

BRIIFFI

Please provide me with the topic, keywords and special instructions to start writing. It is better if you can include some links for my research.

Hi!

I'm writing a blog post for my creative writing blog. The topic is Fiverr and writing, mainly what type of people write at Fiverr and how they manage to stay profitable.

I'm asking you for an authentic and shareable true story – about you and Fiverr. What's your story? How much time do you usually spend on one piece? Do you have any dirty tips and tricks? What's the insider scoop on Fiverr?

Looking forward to hearing from you.